Dear Counsel:

This letter will confirm that we have scheduled the mediation of the above-referenced matter for Thursday, June 29, 2017, beginning at 10:00 a.m., here in my office at 5 Exchange Street.

I have already received a copy of the Complaint and would appreciate receiving a copy of the Answer from Hal. If any orders and/or other dispositive motions have been filed or entered, I would appreciate receiving copies of those as well.

Finally, as is my normal custom, I would appreciate it if each side would provide me with a not more than five-page letter setting forth your position with regard to the case, including strengths and weaknesses. Since this letter will not be exchanged, I would ask that each side be as candid as possible with regard to their analysis. Also, if any prior settlement discussions have occurred, please let me know the status of those discussions. I would like to receive that information no later than Tuesday, June 27, 2017.

Again, thank you for asking me to mediate this case, and I look forward to seeing you on June 29th.

Sincerely,

David B. McCormack
