

DARWIN WEEK in CHARLESTON

Events are Free and Open to the Public

February 8–14, 2010

Does Living with Darwin...

...Mean Living Without a Providentialist God?

Monday, February 8 at 4 p.m., New Science Center Auditorium

Dr. Richard Nunan, Professor of Philosophy at the CofC

The Darwinian Revelation –

On Charles Darwin's "One Long Argument"

Tuesday, Feb. 9, 4 p.m., New Science Center Auditorium 129

AND RE-PRESENTED

at 6:30 p.m., Grimsley Hall Auditorium, Rm 117 - The Citadel

Dr. James Costa, Executive Director, Highlands Biological Station

A "Talks on Tap" Great Debate: Theistic Evolution

Wednesday, Feb. 10, 7:00 p.m.

Southend Brewery, 161 East Bay Street, Downtown, Third Floor

(With our own bartender.)

Who Says the Neandertals Are so Different?

Thursday, Feb. 11, 4 p.m., New Science Center Auditorium 129

AND RE-PRESENTED

at 6:30 p.m., Duckett Hall Auditorium - The Citadel

Dr. David Frayer, Professor of Anthropology, University of Kansas

Teachers' Workshop: Evolution in K-12 Education

Friday, February 12 from 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.

CofC North Campus, Room 139, 5300 International Blvd.,
Building B, North Charleston, SC

RSVP to Starr Jordan @ 843.953.7847 or jordans@cofc.edu

Birthday Party for Charles Darwin to Follow

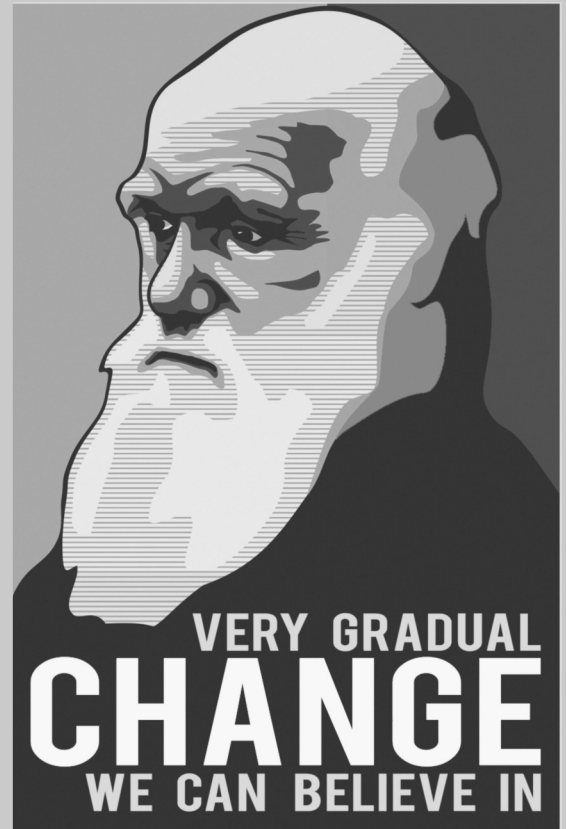

Happy 201st, C.D.!!!

Evolution Sunday

Sunday, February 14, 11 a.m., Circular Congregational Church

Rev. Bert Keller

TOPIC T.B.A.

2010 DARWIN WEEK SPONSORS

The Charleston Chapter of Sigma Xi

South Carolinians for Science Education

Lowcountry Hall of Science & Math

The Circular Congregational Church

The Citadel School of Science & Mathematics

The Second Presbyterian
Church of Charleston

CofC School of Science & Mathematics

CofC Biology Department

CofC Biology Club

CofC Geology Department

CofC Sociology and Anthropology Department

More Darwin Week details – and a note About the Artist and how to purchase Darwin/Change items available online: Follow the link from www.cofc.edu/biology